

Manually review article content against your style guide

Last Modified on 10/08/2025 12:03 pm EDT

Whether you don't like using AI or you're out of Owl Intelligence credits, you can also always manually reviews articles against your style guide:

1. Open the article in the editor.
2. Select Review style guide. The Style guide review modal opens:

3. Select Style guide > in the modal to display your complete style guide in the modal.
4. Read through the article while referencing your style guide.
5. Make edits directly in the article to align it with your style guide.
